

2022 NOMINATION CRITERIA INVESTIGATION OF THE YEAR

NHCAA invites nominations for the 2022 Investigation of the Year Award. This annual award honors an outstanding and effective health care fraud investigation and its impact on fraud deterrence and prevention. In an effort to acknowledge the collaborative efforts of NHCAA members and their respective organizations in the successful investigation of health care fraud, NHCAA encourages recognition of both government agencies and public/private insurers involved in the success of this case.

Submission Criteria

- Eligible nominees must be employed by an NHCAA Member Organization, Affiliate Member, or Government Liaison agency.
- To be eligible for nomination, investigations must either 1) be in the final adjudication stages or 2) have been adjudicated between August 1, 2021, and July 31, 2022. Investigative activity may have commenced prior to August 1, 2021, but the case must be ongoing during the aforementioned timeframe.
- Nominations must be received at NHCAA no later than FRIDAY, JULY 15, 2022, to be eligible for consideration. Late additions may not be accepted.
- An organization may submit multiple nominations.

Selection Criteria and Scoring Weight

Selection of the winning nomination will be based on these criteria, but a submission need not meet every criterion to be considered.

- Scheme complexity (20%)
- Financial impact (10%)
- Impact or potential impact to patients' health or health records (10%)
- Innovative approach to the investigation (30%)
- Public/private collaboration (30%)
